

Community Living Association for South Simcoe

CLASS membership provides an opportunity for our members to have say in the elected board that governs CLASS at its Annual General Meeting (AGM). It also includes other great perks such as education and training opportunities, access to discounts, recognition and more. It is a great way to become a part of the CLASS family and have your voice heard.

Membership Type/Fees:

- General Member $20 (voting member)
- Membership period Sept. 1 – Aug. 31 annually

General Membership Benefits include:

- Opportunity to have your voice heard with Community Living Association for South Simcoe
- Access to exclusive website offering discounts on various events and products – Good Job Program
- $10 off the CLASS golf tournament registration fee
- 10% off on CLASS apparel and swag
- Invite to the AGM
- Entry in a draw at the AGM for a chance to win a great gift valued at approximately $450 (member must be in attendance to win)
- Special access to education materials and online courses – examples below
 - Introduction to the Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP)
 - Trustees: Roles and Responsibilities
 - Building a foundation for supportive relationships
 - Understanding your legal rights
 - Queen’s University Palliative End of Life Care
- Recognition in one of the CLASS newsletters listing membership
- Reduced rate for First Aid/CPR Training
- Members only newsletter 2x year with the latest information on the developmental services sector and educational training information access
- $20 tax receipt

Please note that people employed by CLASS or the people we support cannot be members.